Mr. SPEAKER.—I will look into it.

OFFICIAL RESOLUTION CONDEMNING CHINESE AGGRESSION.

Sri S. NIJALINGAPPA (Chief Minister).—I beg to move:

"That this House condemns the unwarranted and blatant invasion of India by Communist China and assures the Prime Minister of India that the Government and the people of the State of Mysore wholeheartedly pledge their support to all measures which the Government of India may take to drive out the Chinese intruders.

"This House pays its tributes to the valiant officers and men of our armed forces who are defending our frontiers and pays its respectful homage to the martyrs who have laid down their lives in defending the honour and dignity of our Motherland.

"This House further records its profound appreciation of the spontaneous and unceasing response of the people of this country to its call in its present crisis and emergency, and notes with deep gratitude the mighty upsurge amongst all sections of our people for harnessing all our resources towards the organisation of an all out effort to meet this grave national emergency.

"This House affirms the full and firm determination of the people
